The Setting

To celebrate your wedding at Spirit House is an experience for all the senses - sound, sight, taste, scent and feel.

The setting is magical, with a temple style main building and garden dining courtyards, surrounding a tranquil pond, all set in acres of lush tropical gardens dotted with Thai sculptures.

At sunset, the Spirit House turns into a flickering wonderland, with hundreds of lights, candles and bamboo flares reflected in the pond, music drifting across the water against a background of gurgling fountains and temple bells tinkling in the breeze.

The Spirit House gardens include a large Balinese style courtyard ideal for the performance of wedding ceremonies.

An exclusive private dining room adjoins this courtyard for small wedding groups. The other side of this dining room opens onto our stunning cocktail bar

White wedding flags and trimmings, a signing table with chairs, P.A. system and chilled water for guests are provided in this area.

The Menu

With its contemporary Asian cuisine, Spirit House is the ultimate destination for those who enjoy the exotic taste of Asia.

The banquet style menus have something for everyone. All dishes, except dessert which is served alternate drop, get placed down the middle of each table for guests to share.

Menu items are subject to seasonal availability so you will be sent a list of dishes to choose from one month prior to your wedding. These selections need to be made a minimum of 2 weeks before your big day.

Most dietary requirements can be catered for as long as we are notified of them when menu is confirmed.

Tips for your Big Day

A wedding is not a military operation of precision and timing - it's about people coming together and having fun. So here's how you can breathe some order into the whirlwind that is your wedding day.

~ An Usher and/or MC:

Have someone close to the bride and groom to meet and greet, guide guests to where they can leave presents etc. This person can represent you, while you're off having photos taken, or busy mingling with guests.

~ Timing:

Tell us when you want speeches and cutting of the cake. This allows us to control the flow of food and alcohol so as not to disturb these events. A suitable 'run sheet' will then be put together by Spirit House.

~ Music:

Put someone in charge of the music for your entrance and during the ceremony. If you have an iPod make sure it is fully charged.

~ Dietary Requirements:

Ensure your guests understand Spirit House only serves Asian cuisine, some of which is spicy. Let us know who the people are with dietary requirements & where they will be sitting

~ Table Plan:

Think about who you want seated where. We will give you a table plan to fill in. Please do this clearly and give it to us with your place cards.

~ Rain:

Tell your guests to bring umbrellas - many people won't be aware that there's a walk through our gardens before they reach sheltered cover. A white marquee will be erected for your ceremony if necessary.

~ Transport:

At night, there can be long delays for taxis, so have your guests pre-book their transport back to hotels ahead of time or arrange buses for them.

~ Children:

We do recommend you arrange babysitters/entertainment for children so that you can relax and enjoy your day. Spirit House is not a play ground, nor our staff babysitters.
